How Some of Them Were Brought About.

New York, 16.—The failure, yesterday, of George William Ballou & Co. was followed to-day by the suspension of the firm of E. C. Stedman & Co., bankers and brokers, 39 Broad street. At 1 o'clock p. m. Edmund C. Stedman announced from the rotunda of the Stock Exchange, that pending an examination of the affairs of Cecil, Ward & Co., he had made an assignment. The firm is composed of E. C. Stedman & son, Frank, who has been a member for three years past. The following statement was made to reporters by Stedman's brother-in-law. Stedman went to the office on Monday from a three days' vacation, and upon looking into the accounts of the firm, found a large deficiency. He at once caused a thorough investigation and was almost prostrated by the discovery that during his absence Fred K. Stedman had been speculating steadily on his own account with money belonging to the firm. Although it is not positively known, it is supposed his transactions were through the firm of Cecil, Ward & Co. The liabilities will not exceed $200,000 and the suspension will be merely temporary. It is expected the assets will nearly reach this amount.

The creditors in Boston of F. Shaw & Brothers met this afternoon at the Shoe and Leather Exchange. Fayette Shaw, senior partner, presented statements explaining the causes which led to the firm's embarrassment. When the Pacific bank failed in 1881, several of their large customers came to them and asked for help. This was given and nothing was asked in return. Meantime the volume of papers which had been used to raise money for them, had become large and they found it affected their single-armed papers. Finally, as a more temporary emergency as they supposed at the time, they were obliged to ask them for their papers for their own use. The result has been that they have had to rely upon double name paper to raise money. This paper aroused suspicion which continued until they saw clearly that if those other houses could not take care of themselves their house could no longer carry the burden. A statement of the firm's liabilities and assets was then presented by the manager, F. A. Wyman, as follows: Liabilities, direct $4,612,000; contingent $2,897,000, total $7,509,000; assets $5,262,000; also claims against parties with whom they have dealings in notes, but the amount it is impossible to state to day. The contingent liabilities, $1,824,000, is insolvent, but they claim to have collateral amounting to $1,005,000 for part of the contingent liabilities of which $447,000 is called good. The insolvent firm accepted drafts for hides to arrive to the amount of $4,515 on letters of credit.

Postal Telegraph Company.

New York, 16.—The election of Mackay as director of the Postal Telegraph company was announced on the board at 2 o'clock. The announcement was also made that the capital of the Postal Telegraph company had been fixed at $21,000,000, of which $19,000,000 had been issued to be sold, and that of this large amount to be offered for sale, $12,000,000 had been placed in the hands of George Coo, president of the American Exchange National Bank. The working capital is said to have been raised by the sale of $3,000,000, first mortgage bonds on the present and future property to J. W. Mackay, H. L. Horton and George D. Roberts.

New York, 16.—Russell Sage said today, when asked what he thought of the prospects of the Postal Telegraph company: "This new blood won't amount to anything. I know both Mackay and Roberts. Mackay has considerable wealth and his name will go a great way in that respect. For the sake of stockholders I hope they will fare better than did those who were in the Consolidated Virginia and California mines with him. I and several of my friends were interested in them with Mr. Mackay. The great trouble with us stockholders was that we could not see so far into a rock as Mr. Mackay could, so we got left and Mr. Mackay got rich. I hope the stockholders in this telegraph scheme will be better able to see into the rock than I was into the mining scheme."

"But supposing the Postal Company takes in southern merchants and bankers and the American Rapid company also forms a new system, won't that make a formidable rival?"

"It might prove a rival like some we have had before. All of these have come to us, however, and have been anxious to sell out, and we have accommodated them so far. I don't know what course we shall take in case a new rival springs up."

The Cyclone.

Chattanooga, Tenn., 16.—A cyclone swept through here this afternoon. The G. T. Virginia and Georgia, and Alabama and Great Southern depots were unroofed. A large number of buildings were unroofed and several blown down. Flying timber seriously injured J. H. Jenkins, going through a box car before they struck him. There were several other casualties. There was a heavy hailstorm at the time and horses ran away. One was killed and many were injured. Only one telegraph wire out of the city remains intact. Telegraph business of the entire south is delayed here and business is seriously interrupted.

The French.

Toulon, 16.—The transports Boston City and Maivide, with Rear-Admiral Galley and reinforcements, sailed to-day for Madagascar.

Paris, 16.—Admiral Courbet, commander of the French squadron, has already commenced operations against Hue, by blockading Journeuve, at the mouth of the river, three leagues distant. He will land a force there to co-operate with the gunboats. Hue will probably be invested by about the 20th.
